Property Description

This is an exceptional South-facing villa with 180-degree views of the Mediterranean sea, the coast of Africa, Gibraltar, golf courses, and La Concha mountain. It is very well located in a quiet cul-de-sac in the exclusive and well-established area of El Paraiso with plenty of amenities only a short drive away.

A spacious entrance hall opens, to the right, to a very bright living room with wooden floors and a separate dining room, both of them with direct access to the splendid terraces and the mature garden with a heated pool with an electric cover. The large kitchen is very well equipped with top-quality appliances and a wine cooler, family breakfast area with a fireplace.

From here, as well as from the entrance hall, we reach the beautiful distributor/corridor with huge windows overlooking the garden that leads us to the guest toilet and the bedroom wing where we find two very nice bedrooms, both with en-suite bathrooms, and direct access to the main covered terrace.

Walking through a multi-purpose room/office with a bathroom and a private terrace, a white wooden staircase takes us upstairs where we find two cozy bedrooms, one with an en suite bathroom.
